

Name: _____

Children's Day

Watch the video and circle the correct answers.

1. Childrens' Day is on:                      5 January                      5 May                      5 July
2. Kodomo no hi means:                      Children's Day                      carp kite                      flag
3. Koinobori means:                      Children's Day                      carp kite                      flag
4. The highest streamer is:                      yellow                      orange                      colourful
5. The highest fish represents:                      father                      mother                      children
6. The highest fish is:                      blue/green                      red                      black
7. The second highest fish represents:                      father                      mother                      children
8. The second highest fish is:                      blue/green                      red                      black
9. The lower fish represent:                      father                      mother                      children
10. The lower fish are:                      blue/green                      red                      black

Colour the pictures.

