

Three Little Pigs

The story below needs 10 capital letters and 10 full stops. Put them in using different colours.

Six things are listed in one sentence. Put 4 commas in this sentence.

Rule lines through the incorrect words in brackets. Highlight the correct ones.

Two words have been made shorter. Each needs an apostrophe (') to show where some letters have been left out.

three little pigs lived with [there/their] mother they liked to eat they ate apples oranges plums cakes jelly and onions the pigs grew and grew soon they didnt fit in the house it was time to move to a new house [there/their] mother wasnt happy they kissed her and went they found a clearing in the forest they began building a house [there/their]

Shortened Words

Sometimes we shorten words. When we do this we must put an apostrophe in the space where letters have been left out.

For example: is not = isn't

Put the apostrophes in these shortened words.

Highlight the letters left out.

- (a) was not = wasn't
- (b) has not = h a s n t
- (c) is not = i s n t
- (d) does not = d o e s n t
- (e) I am = I m
- (f) we are = w e r e
- (g) they are = t h e y r e

Your Turn

Pretend you are one of the three little pigs. Write a letter to the big bad wolf's mother complaining about the way the wolf is treating you. Tell what he does and how it makes you feel.
